Passed by the Legislative Council this 28th day of November, 1997.

Reuben Vanterpool
Speaker

Hugh A. Hodge
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

LEGAL REPORT

This Act essentially amends the Mutual Funds Act, 1996 (Act No. 6 of 1996) by simplifying certain requirements under the Act and introducing new elements designed to facilitate the efficient and effective administration of the Act. Such matters relating to the power to prescribe forms and issue directives and guidelines, which were originally to be effected by way of regulations, have now been outlined in the Act so as to ensure flexibility and the timely and smooth implementation of the Act. The Bill introduces the concept of a professional fund, which will be available only to professional investors within the meaning of the Act. Furthermore, provision is made empowering the Minister to prescribe a Code of Conduct for licence holders under the Act to comply with requirements relating to the conduct of business, advertising, administration of clients' money and investments, and so on.

The Act, when enacted, will come into force on the same date the Mutual Funds Act, 1996 is brought into force. This will assist in implementing the Act on a sound footing.

The Act was introduced in the Legislative Council on 30th day of September 1997 and passed through its remaining stages on the 28th day of November 1997.

In my opinion, His Excellency, The Governor may properly assent to this Act in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty.
